

Packing List

What to Pack for Your Manchester City Summer: The Ultimate Checklist

1. Clothes for All Occasions

Manchester's weather is a bit unpredictable! Even in summer, you might experience sunshine, drizzle, and cool evenings all in one day.

Top tip: pack in layers so you can adapt easily. You'll be given your official Manchester City training kit to wear during your sessions, but you'll still want:

- Casual outfits for evenings in the residence
- A warm hoodie or jumper
- A waterproof jacket
- Comfortable shoes or trainers for downtime

2. Training Gear

Come prepared to play your best game:

- Football boots suitable for grass or turf pitches
- Shinpads
- Goalkeeper gloves, if that's your position

All other specialist training equipment will be provided by the coaching team.

3. Personal Items

- Toiletries
- Any prescription medication you'll need for the full duration of your stay Note: some medicines common in other countries may not be available in the UK - so bring enough for your trip.
- 3-pin UK plug adapter with Mobile phone charger
- Padlock for lockable drawer in bedroom

4. Important Documents

- Passport or photo ID
- Copy of health insurance details
- Emergency contact info (we recommend keeping this in your phone and on paper)

5. Spending Money

You won't need much - your accommodation, meals, and kit are all provided. But a little pocket money for souvenirs from the City Store, shopping treats or snacks on outings is always nice!

What NOT to Bring

- No flammable items: candles, incense, lighters, fireworks, etc.
- No weapons of any kind: including pocket knives, laser pointers, or anything dangerous.
- No tobacco, alcohol, drugs, or unauthorized medicines.
- No vehicles or wheels: that means no cars, skateboards, scooters, skates, or bikes.
- No pets
- No drones or motorized gadgets.
- No valuables: We recommend leaving expensive items at home.

Final Packing Tips

- Double-check your travel documents before you leave
- Label your belongings clearly - especially boots and training gear!
- Save some room in your bag... you might want space for a few new Manchester City souvenirs Ready, Set, Pack!
